May 29, 1968

The bell has rung for the last time. Our four years at Chilli High have ended. We, the editors, feel honored to have had a part in helping to compile the last SEQUENCE for Chillicothe Township High School. No longer will there be the SEQUENCE, the Grey Ghosts, the colors maroon and grey, or Chilli-cothe High School. Next year it will all be changed. New traditions will begin. We hope that this 1968 SEQUENCE will be a treasure chest of memories of the 1967-68 school year for you.

To produce a yearbook, it takes people who are willing to work. We feel there are certain members who deserve special credit for doing more than their share of the job. One of these is Janel Yoder, who has given up many 1st hour study halls to help meet deadlines. She deserves a trophy addressed "to the hardest working member of the 1968 SEQUENCE staff." Janel willingly and faithfully spent many hours diligently working on SEQUENCE. Indeed, to us she was a third editor. Others who demand recognition for the hard work which they did well are JoAnn Adams, Rita Davis, Becky Schreiber, Jerry Doran, and Lynda Hendryx. Besides these hard-working students, there is also Mrs. Carroll, our faculty advisor. Because of her strong supervision we were able to meet all deadlines, even without some of our needed pictures and copy.

We hope that you will be as proud of this issue of SEQUENCE as we are.
